T and NEAR the 4th AVE. 1999 SUBWAY, BROOKE *** GSSSSS

Model apartments at Seventy-first Street and Ridge Boulevard.

Report Gain of $4,000,000

League for Home Savings Never So Strong or Prosperous, the Total Assets of Its Members Aggre-

State Loan Associations

At Third and Ovington Avenues.

All Aboard for Brooklyn By Way of 4th Ave. Subway

Operation Arranged to Begin Saturday Next with New All-Steel Cars Purchased for Dual System Use-One Foot Wider and Sixteen Feet Longer Than Those on the Interborough Line —Cost of Construction.

W. 25th st. 36th at., 59th st., Prospect the Sea Beach line, Eighth av., Fort Samilton av., New Utrecht av., Eigh-heeth av., Twentieth av., Twenty-sec-man, Kings Highway, Av. U. 86th st. 20 Description.

ng subway. They are 67 sixteen feet longer than subway cars. They will ongers in the rush hours passenger time. The company the substitution of the cars, or scated and 760 stand-car train of the new sill carry the same load agers, but will accommony that the substitution of the company is a same substitution of the subway. Submy cars will carry the same load that the state of the special paragraph. But is no be insulted by the company, but is no be insulted by the company, but is no be insulted by the company. But is no be insulted by the company in the special paragraph in the same insulted by the company in the special paragraph. The same insulted by the company is the same insulted by the company in the same insulted by the company in the same insulted by the sa date 624 sent Upper centre picture—In Seventy-fifth Street, near Ridge Boulevard. Lower centre picture—At Sunset Park at Forty-first Street and Seventh Avenue. Big building is new Public School 169.

PRENDERGAST WILL SPEAK AT MEETING

SUBWAY CELEBRATION PROGRAMME JUNE 19.

Clifford C. Couch and William J. Wallin.

The report makes suggestion for a measure which will stop special legislation, and advocates the adoption of latin and advocates the adoption of uniform laws to permit a larger designer of separate and local legislation for Westchester County.

Senator Wainwright told the supervisors that there was a broad interest throughout the state on the question of more efficient county government, to increase the economy and also for more with their members eagenders a confidence that no other financial organization possesses. During the year, the Banking Elmer E. Stanton, of the Pioneer Association, read a paper on "Some Elements in the Growth of One Association," and Charles C. Zoller, of Rochester, on "The Poor Man and the Savings the committees on resolutions and finance and the provided that the state on the question of more efficient county government, to increase the economy and also for more.

Mr. Cohen's specch, in part, follows:

Jervis, N. Y., on Thursday.

throughout the state on the question of more efficient county government, to increase the economy and also for more concentration in county laws.

The supervisors approved the suggestions and directed that the legislative committee assist the commission in urging the Constitutional Convention to arrange for the change in the laws.

Long Island Leases.

John F. Scott subjet for H. Hobart Porter the Winant cottage at Lawrence Beach, Long Island, to Miss Eulaite Van Lenge.

L'Ecluse, Wasi, burn & Co. leased for O. W. Anthony his residence at Plandome, Long Island, to W. G. Demarest.

Thoughout the state on the question of more deficient county government, to increase the economy and also for more concentration in county laws.

Mr. Cohen's speech, in part, follows:

"Since our last convention at Buffalo American monied institutions and the test, and the success with which they have withstood from all taxation in the law, yet it was stion. During this period of financial disturbance the savings and loan associations of New York State continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. When the continued in the even tenor of their way. The continued in the even tenor of their gating $68,500,000-Many New Mortgages Written and Withdrawals in Year Promptly Met. "Our league registers the high water denositing their savings in our coffers mark of prosperity. Notwithstanding in New York State aggregate $68,500, here. the unsettled conditions, our institutions show an increase of $4,000,000." These remarks were made in the course of an address by Martin S. Cohen, retiring president of the New York State League of Savings and Loan Associations, at its twenty-eighth annual convention at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall at Port future Frank Lybolt, Mayor of Port Jervis, delivered an address of welcome, which seem an apparent hardship, of the associations have a themselves to their limitation

he said that the savings and loan asso-ciations of New York were by it ren-